Seven Homes, A Residential Youth Alternative, Inc. (d/b/a Seven Homes Foster Care and Adoption Agency) has received a $10,000 contribution from The Wachovia Wells Fargo Foundation. Seven Homes provides care for children placed by the Department of Social Services within the Triad and outlying counties. Since its formation in 1995, Seven Homes has provided care for over 160 children and has assisted 55 of those children in finding permanent homes through adoption.

Seven Homes operates the Community Thrift store at 1311 Johnson Street in High Point where its office is also located. Merchandise is donated and then sold to the general public. Revenue supports Seven Homes' foster care and adoption programs.

For more information on Seven Homes and its programs please contact Kenneth B. Maxwell, Executive Director, at (336) 542-3307 or www.sevenhomes.org.
